Let's crack the S.A.F.E. Act, bank on public education, and celebrate our assets together!

Superintendent of Topeka schools Tiffany Anderson, Ph.D., is an advocate for children of poverty and color in public schools. In 2014, she earned national recognition from Education Week as one of "16 Leaders to Learn From."

Attorney Bob Eye serves on the board of directors for ACLU of Kansas as well as the Nuclear Information and Resource Service in Washington, D.C. He will talk about civil rights cases, specifically voting rights.

The LWVK liaison to LWVUS, Kim Lauth, CFRE, has more than 25 years of experience in nonprofit management and fundraising. She will speak on strategic planning and the work of the League in these times.

The purpose of the LWVK Convention is to inspire and empower Kansans to increase their active and informed participation in civic life. Come meet passionate people from across the state who are Making Democracy Work® for all.
